- Key, Separate Issue

The SCC has asked for memoranda on the question of whether, under Virginia law, the SCC is permitted or required to consider regional, multi-state need in reviewing an application for a transmission line in Virginia. The applicants, Dominion and Allegheny, must file their memoranda by Aug. 13. Staff and any respondents must file their memoranda by Sept. 4. The applicants must file rebuttal memoranda by Sept. 14. There is no indication if the SCC will have a hearing on this separate question.
